v.

ALEJANDRO ORTA DE LEON,
Defendant.

Criminal No. 22-525 (SCC)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
ON RULE 11(c)(1)(B) CHANGE OF PLEA HEARING

I. Procedural Background

On December 7, 2023, Defendant Alejandro Orta-De León was charged by a Grand Jury in a three-count superseding indictment. Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment.

Count Two of the Superseding Indictment charges that, from on or about June 19, 2022, through on or about June 26, 2022, in the District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this court, Alejandro Orta-De León, the defendant herein, used a facility and means of interstate or foreign commerce, that is, a cellular phone that was not manufactured in Puerto Rico, as well as internet instant messaging services, to attempt to knowingly transfer obscene matter to an individual who the defendant believed to have not attained the age of sixteen, that is, an individual who the defendant believed to be a thirteen-year-old male minor, knowing that such male individual had not attained the age of sixteen. All in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 1470.

Count Three of the Superseding Indictment charges that, from on or about June 19, 2022, to on or about June 26, 2022, in the District of Puerto Rico, and within the jurisdiction of this

USA v. Orta-De León
Cr. No. 22-525 (SCC)
Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

Court, Alejandro Orta-De León, the defendant herein, did knowingly attempt to receive a visual depiction of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct, such visual depiction having been shipped and transported using a means and facility of interstate and foreign commerce, and in or affecting interstate and foreign commerce, and having been produced using material which had been mailed and so shipped and transported, by any means, including by computer, that is the defendant, using his cellular phone which had internet capabilities, attempted to receive images depicting a male minor engaged sexually explicit conduct. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(2) and (b)(1).

On December 20, 2023, Defendant informed the Court of his intention to change his plea. Docket No. 41. The United States of America and Defendant entered into a Plea and Forfeiture Agreement. Docket No. 49. Pursuant to the plea agreement, Defendant agreed to plead guilty to Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment. On January 8, 2024, Defendant appeared before this Court for a change of plea hearing pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. See United States v. Woodward, 387 F. 3d. 1329 (11th Cir. 2004) (holding that a magistrate judge may, with the defendant's consent, conduct a Rule 11 change of plea hearing). Defendant was advised of the purpose of the hearing and placed under oath with instructions that his answers must be truthful because he could otherwise be charged with perjury.

II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

Defendant was advised of his right to hold all proceedings, including this change of plea hearing, before a district court judge. An explanation of the differences between the scope of jurisdiction and functions of a district judge and a magistrate judge was provided. Defendant was informed that, if he elects to proceed before a magistrate judge, the magistrate judge would conduct the hearing and prepare a report and recommendation, subject to the review and approval of the district judge.

Defendant was provided with a Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury, which he signed prior to the hearing. Docket No. 48. Defendant validated his signature and informed that his attorney had translated the document to Spanish and had explained the document before signing the same. The Court found that Defendant voluntarily consented to proceed before a magistrate judge and approved Defendant's consent.

Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

III. Proceedings Under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, the guilty plea must be knowing and voluntary. United States v. Hernández Wilson, 186 F. 3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999). "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea'". United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F. 3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U. S. 459, 467 (1969)). There are three core concerns in a Rule 11 proceeding: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charge; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea.

A. Competence to Enter a Guilty Plea

The Court questioned Defendant about his age, education, employment, history of any treatment for mental illness or addiction, use of any medication, drugs or alcohol, and his understanding of the purpose of the hearing, to ascertain his capacity to understand, answer and comprehend the change of plea colloquy. The Court confirmed that Defendant received the Superseding Indictment and fully discussed the charges with his attorney, and that he was satisfied with the advice and representation he received. The Court further inquired whether Defendant's counsel or counsel for the Government had any reservations as to Defendant's competency to plead, receiving answers that Defendant was competent to enter a plea. After considering Defendant's responses, and observing his demeanor, the Court found that Defendant was competent to plead and fully aware of the purpose of the hearing.

B. Plea Agreement

Defendant was shown his plea agreement, including the stipulation of facts, and he identified his initials and signatures. Defendant confirmed that he had the opportunity to read and discuss the plea agreement and plea agreement supplement with his attorney, that his attorney translated both the plea agreement and the plea agreement supplement before he signed the documents, that the plea agreement represented the entirety of his understanding with the Government, that he understood the terms of the plea agreement and plea agreement supplement, and that no one had made any other or different promises or assurances to induce him to plead guilty. Counsel for the Government described the essential terms of the plea agreement, including

USA v. Orta-De León
Cr. No. 22-525 (SCC)
Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

stipulations pertaining to the Sentencing Guidelines and any sentencing recommendations. Counsel for the defense agreed with the Government's description of the terms and recommendations, and so did Defendant.

Defendant was then admonished, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), that the terms of the plea agreement are mere recommendations to the Court, and that the District Judge who will preside over the sentencing hearing can reject the recommendations without permitting him to withdraw his guilty plea. And that the District Judge could impose a sentence that is more severe than what Defendant might anticipate. Defendant expressed full understanding of the foregoing and confirmed that he was fully aware that, if the District Judge does not follow the recommendations in the plea agreement, he will not be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty if he receives a sentence that is higher than expected.

C. Voluntariness

In considering the plea agreement, Defendant acknowledged that the plea agreement contains all the promises and agreements that he made with the Government and that no one made any other or different promise or assurance of any kind in exchange for his guilty plea, other than the recommendations set forth in the plea agreement. Defendant indicated that he was not being induced to plead guilty, that he was entering such plea freely and voluntarily because in fact he is guilty, and that no one has threatened him or offered a thing of value in exchange for his plea. Defendant understood that the offenses to which he is pleading guilty are felonies and that, if the plea is accepted, he will be adjudged guilty of those offenses, and that such adjudication may deprive him of valuable civil rights, such as the right to vote, the right to hold public office, the right to serve on a jury, and the right to possess a firearm. Defendant was specifically advised that, if a plea of guilty is accepted by the Court, he will be required to register as a Sex Offender pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, that his status as a sex offender would be made public, and that he may be required to register for life. Defendant confirmed that he understood that to be one of the consequences of pleading guilty.

Throughout the hearing, Defendant was free to consult with his attorney or to seek clarification from the Court. He confirmed that his agreement to plead guilty was made knowingly and voluntarily.

D. Maximum Penalties

Defendant expressed his understanding of the statutory maximum penalties for the offenses to which he was pleading guilty. The maximum statutory penalties for Count Two of the Superseding Indictment are a term of imprisonment of no more than ten (10) years, a fine not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), and a term of supervised release of not more than three (3) years. The maximum statutory penalties for Count Three of the Superseding Indictment are a term of imprisonment of not less than five (5) years and not more than twenty (20) years, a fine not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), and a term of supervised release of at least five (5) years but up to life. In addition, a Special Monetary Assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction would be imposed, to be deposited to the Criminal Victims Fund pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a). An amount of $5,000.00 per count under 18 U.S.C. §3014, could be imposed by the Court. Defendant indicated that he understood the maximum penalties, that the offenses charged are felonies, and the potential consequences of the guilty plea, such as the deprivation of certain valuable rights.

The Court then explained the nature of supervised release and the consequences of violating conditions of supervised release. Specifically, Defendant was informed that, if supervised release is revoked, he may be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment up to the full term of supervised release originally imposed by the Court. And that, if he is currently on supervised release in a different case than the one object of the Superseding Indictment, his plea of guilty, if accepted, could result in negative consequences, such as the revocation of his supervised release in that other case. The Court further advised Defendant that in certain cases the Court may also order, or be required to order, that he pay restitution to any victim of the offenses, and the Court may also require him to forfeit certain property to the Government, as set forth in the forfeiture provision of the plea agreement. Defendant was also informed that any sentence imposed in this case could be imposed to run concurrently or consecutively to any sentence he may be currently serving in another case.

E. Sentencing Procedure

Defendant was informed that, in determining his sentence, the District Judge is required to consider, but not necessarily follow, the Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant confirmed that he

USA v. Orta-De León
Cr. No. 22-525 (SCC)
Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

discussed with his attorney how the Sentencing Guidelines might apply to this case. Defendant was specifically informed that the Court, after considering the applicable Sentencing Guidelines, could impose a sentence different from any estimate in the plea agreement or provided by his attorney, and that the Court had the authority to impose a sentence that is more severe or less severe than the sentence called for by the Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant was advised, and informed to have understood, that the Sentencing Guidelines are thus considered advisory, and that during sentencing the District Court will consider the sentencing criteria found at Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a), which include the seriousness of the offenses, the need for deterrence of criminal conduct, the need to protect the public from further crimes, the need to provide Defendant with educational or vocational training, or medical care, and the need to provide restitution to any victims.

Defendant was advised that parole has been abolished and that, if he is sentenced to prison, he will not be released on parole. Further, Defendant was advised of his right to appeal and that, under some circumstances, he or the Government may have the right to appeal the sentence imposed by the Court. But that, pursuant to his plea agreement, he is waiving his right to appeal both the judgment and sentence imposed by the Court, if the Court accepts his plea agreement and sentences him to ninety (90) months or less of imprisonment. Defendant informed that he understood his right to appeal and that he voluntarily agreed to this waiver.

F. Waiver of Constitutional Rights

Defendant was specifically advised that he has the right to persist in a plea of not guilty and that, if he does, he has the right to a speedy trial by jury, or trial before a judge sitting without a jury if the Court and the Government so agree; that at trial he would be presumed innocent and the Government would have to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; that he would have the right to the assistance of counsel for his defense, and that, if he could not afford one, an attorney would be appointed to represent him through all stages of the proceedings; that at trial he would have the right to hear and cross examine all witnesses, the right to issue subpoenas or to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify at trial, and the right to testify or to remain silent. Defendant was further advised that if he decided not to testify or put on evidence at trial, the failure to do so could not be used against him, and that at trial the jury would have to return a unanimous verdict before he could be found guilty or not guilty.

USA v. Orta-De León
Cr. No. 22-525 (SCC)
Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

Defendant specifically acknowledged understanding these rights. He reaffirmed his understanding that by entering a plea of guilty there would be no trial and he would be waiving or giving up the rights that the Court explained.

G. Offenses Charged and Factual Basis for the Guilty Plea

Defendant was read in open court Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment and was provided an explanation of technical terms used in the Superseding Indictment to describe the charges. Defendant was also provided an explanation of the elements of the offenses. Defendant expressed that he understood the charges in Counts Two and Three and the elements of the offenses, and what the Government would have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt if he were to go to trial.

The Government explained the factual basis for the offenses and the evidence it would present if this case were to proceed to trial. Upon questioning, Defendant admitted to the facts, constituting all the elements of the offenses charged. Defendant admitted that he was pleading guilty because he is in fact guilty. Defendant pled guilty as to Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment.

IV. Conclusion

Defendant appeared before me, by consent, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures and entered a plea of guilty as to Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment.

After cautioning and examining Defendant under oath and in open court concerning each of the subject matters in Rule 11, the Court finds that the defendant, Alejandro Orta-De León, is fully competent and capable of entering this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the charges and the maximum statutory penalties these carry, understands that the charges are supported by evidence and a basis in fact, has admitted to the facts and the elements of the offenses, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.

I recommend that the Court accept the guilty plea and that Defendant be adjudged guilty as to Counts Two and Three of the Superseding Indictment.
